THEATER AN DER MARSCHNERSTRASSE

THE HAMBURG PLAYERS e.V.

To brighten up the dark February days the Hamburg Players invite you to an evening of three short comic plays:

“Totally Absurd” - an evening full of comedy and humour, including our award-winning entry at FEATS 2017 (Festival of European Anglophone Theatrical Societies).

A Slight Accident took home the awards for second best production and best actor.

Alas, Poor Fred by James Saunders begins with a peaceful armchair conversation between Ernest and his wife Ethel who are chatting about how funny it must be to get cut in half, as Fred was.

Joe and Stew’s Theatre of Brotherly Love and Financial Success by Jacquelyn Reingold tells the story of two theatre-loving cockroaches who are facing the end of the world.

A Slight Accident by James Saunders begins with the sound of a gunshot and explores how Penelope tries to explain to her neighbours Camilla and Roger just what did happen and how it was all simply an accident.
