It's A Wonderful Life: A Live Radio Play

adapted by Joe Landry

“‘It's a Wonderful Life’ is based on the story
‘The Greatest Gift’ by Philip Van Doren Stern.”

directed by Jessica Albiston & Jocasta Godlieb

The iconic Hollywood movie “It's A Wonderful Life” is an absolute must-see during the holiday season. No wonder, the American retelling of “A Christmas Carol” is as heart-warming as it is life-affirming.

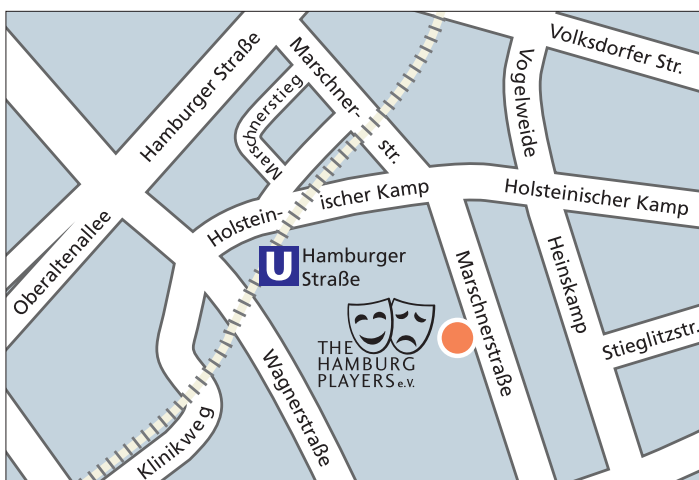

In his stage version of “It's A Wonderful Life”, Joe Landry sets the story as a 1940's radio broadcast coming to you live from New York City, where an ensemble of actors, singers and audio artists brings to life the idyllic town of Bedford Falls.

Idealistic George Bailey is a dreamer, a husband and father to four, and perhaps even the heart of the community. Which is why when, one stormy December night, he finds his family business unexpectedly confronted with possible bankruptcy, he desperately wishes he had never been born. Lucky for him and the rest of Bedford Falls, his guardian angel Clarence is determined to change George's mind – and finally earn his wings.
